Zuri Zanzibar

On the northern tip of Unguja Island, around 60km from Stone Town, Zuri, which means “beautiful” in Swahili is an apt description for this premium hotel in Zanzibar. African-style roofing and earthy but contemporary interiors are featured throughout the 56 villas, bungalows and suites, which are comfortably spread across the resort’s white-sand beachfront and tropical gardens, each only steps away from the azure waters of the Indian Ocean. Bungalows come with terraces and outdoor showers, while villas and suites each offer the added luxury of a private jacuzzi. Guests frequently gather for sundowners served up on the beachfront to jaw-dropping sunsets and soothing DJ sets, and can enjoy a range of cuisines from international dishes served up by live cooking stations at the main restaurant, to light bites at the poolside and beachfront or bespoke and intimate private dinners and cooking lessons across the resort.
